

ESL 340: Reading & Passive Voice

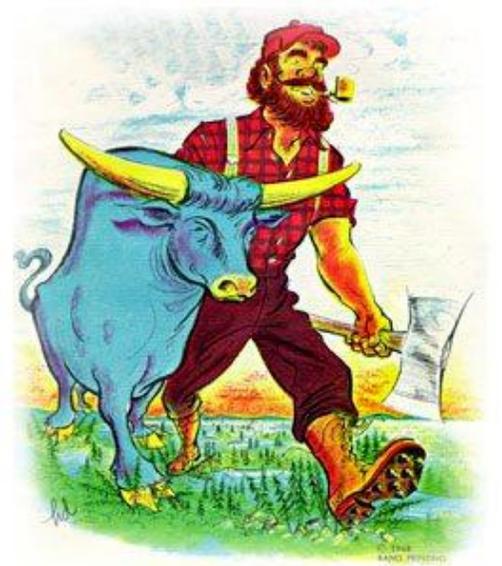

Week 15, Thur. 5/3/18

Todd Windisch, Spring 2018

Don't forget to sign-in!

A Tall Tale

- Join a discussion with your classmates using the following questions about LEGENDS & MYTHS:
 - Does your country/culture have any legends or myths? What are they?
 - Why do you think every culture has legends and myths?
- Let's watch an American legend (we also call it a "tall tale") together
 - Be prepared to summarize the story to a partner afterwards!

Daily Bookkeeping

- ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- Final Class TUE 5/15
- Final Exam THUR 5/17, 7:30 – 9:30

- TODAY'S AGENDA:

1. Review quiz
2. Review passive voice homework
3. Continue passive (units 6, 7)
 - Video activity!
4. Reading/vocabulary practice
5. Kahoot practice (if time)

- HOMEWORK:

- Study study study!
 - No more quizzes for the semester!
The final exam will cover all grammar chapters, but focus more on the chapters AFTER the midterm
 - The final exam will also include questions about the vocabulary from unit 4 of the reading book

Essay Schedule

- TUE 4/17 : Outlines DUE
 - THUR 4/19, return outlines
- THUR 4/26 : First Draft DUE
 - Peer edit in class, take home to finish
- TUE 5/1 : Final Draft DUE
 - TUE 5/8, return final draft
- TUE 5/15 : Any extra credit corrections DUE

1. The idea that women cannot be effective leaders or managers is _____.
2. The teacher usually does not accept late work, but she made an _____ this time because the student had a doctor's note.
3. I _____ all of the time I have with my grandmother because I know she won't be around for much longer.
4. Luke is so _____ during class that the teacher had to ask him to leave.
5. Tina is trying to be more _____ in her life by saying, "No" when she doesn't want to do something.
6. Rick is most _____ person in his group of friends. He usually makes all of the plans, and everyone else just follows along.

Workbook, EXERCISE 2

2. owned

3. claimed

4. found

5. were said

6. was composed of

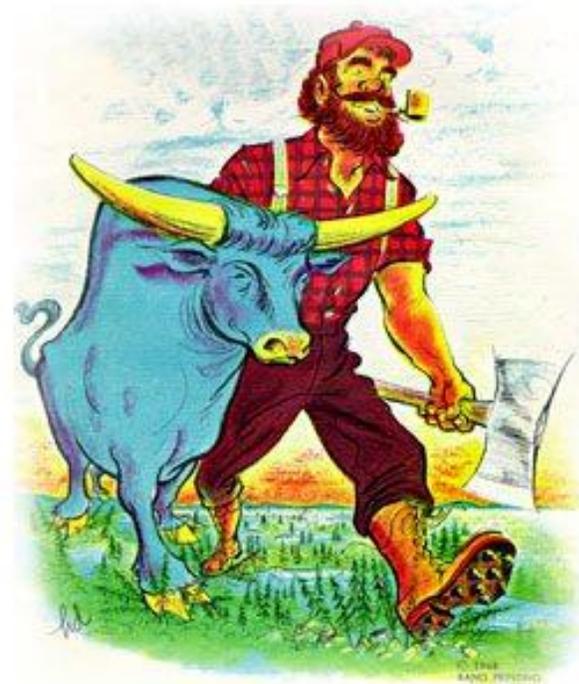

7. are also thought

8. are alleged

9. are located

10. said

11. are known

EXERCISE 3, p. 113

1. was thought to be (..to have been)
2. is claimed to have been
3. are considered (to be)
4. are regarded as
5. were believed to be (..to have been)
6. have been considered (to be)
7. is said to be
8. was regarded as
9. is assumed to have been (...to be)
10. are alleged to be

EXERCISE 4, pp. 113-114

1. For centuries before Copernicus, it was thought that the earth was the center of the universe.
2. It is claimed (by many people) that flying saucers actually exist.
3. It is said (by some) that the yeti inhabits the Himalayas.
4. At the time of Plato, it was thought that Atlantis was (had been) hit by a series of earthquakes.
5. It was believed that Atlantis sank/sunk (had sunk) into the ocean without a trace.
6. At one time in history, it was assumed that the earth was flat.
7. It is believed (by some people) that the Greek poet Homer was a composite of several people.